WEWORLD Group Profile

WEWORLD

PURPOSE Our Reason for Being

Empowering People, Building Dreams, Connecting Worlds

WEWORLD's Challenge

From Japan to the world.
From the world to Japan.

The WEWORLD Group operates in the education sector, including Japanese language instruction, to support the aspirations of young individuals worldwide who aspire to play an active role on the global stage. In recent years, beyond fostering global talent through education, we have also expanded into the international human resource placement sector to responsibly support individuals in developing their careers. In this way, we continue to expand our business scope and grow as a comprehensive human resources development company.

MISSION

Our Purpose

Creating opportunities for people from around the world to learn and grow together

We believe that everyone needs a place to learn and grow; a place to realize their dreams. We support individuals in their efforts to achieve their aspirations and contribute to building both a diverse and sustainable international society.

VISION

Our Business Goals

Cultivating global leaders who transcend borders and make meaningful contributions worldwide

Through education, we nurture global leaders who inspire diverse communities, drive positive innovation, and make meaningful contributions to society.

Message from the CEO

From an education company to a comprehensive human resources development company: a new endeavor to create lasting value.

Since its founding, WEWORLD Group has contributed to the development of the international community by providing Japanese language education and operating universities and vocational schools, helping to cultivate more than 60,000 talented individuals. Today, as Japan faces a growing shortage of skilled talent, we are expanding our campuses and enhancing our educational environment to welcome more students and attract outstanding talent from around the world. At the same time, by expanding our business into international talent development, we are strengthening our ability to deliver more practical solutions.
In September 2024, we rebranded as WEWORLD—a name that reflects our unwavering commitment since the company's founding: to grow together with global talent and build a brighter future. As we enter this new chapter, we are establishing a comprehensive platform that supports every stage of development, from education and career preparation to entry into the professional world. We remain committed to being a corporate group that promotes sustainable growth, fulfills its social responsibilities, and continues to be a trusted choice for students worldwide.

Divisions of the WEWORLD Group

Cross-Divisional Synergies: Transforming Challenges into Opportunities

The WEWORLD Group fosters human resource development by leveraging synergies across its six divisions.

Japanese Language Education Division

*The total number of long-term and short-term students enrolled throughout the year.

Throughout the year, more than 10,000* international students from over 100 countries and regions study Japanese language and culture through ISI's unique educational system. By fostering diverse learning experiences and cross-cultural exchange, we provide Japanese language education that meets the evolving needs of society.

ISI International Study Institute

Admissions Preparation Services Division

To meet the growing demand for higher education among students in the Chinese market, WEWORLD Group launched JUQ, a preparatory education brand built on its extensive expertise in academic guidance. Through close collaboration with ISI Japanese Language School, JUQ aims to provide efficient, practical educational programs that support students in achieving their academic goals.

JUQ

College Education Division

The campuses located in Ikebukuro, Tokyo and Ueda, Nagano offer an international and multicultural environment. Our aim is for both international and Japanese students to develop global perspectives, specialized expertise, and personal competencies, while acquiring business knowledge and language skills to prepare them for the global workforce.

TBL TOKYO BUSINESS and LANGUAGE COLLEGE
NBL NAGANO BUSINESS and LANGUAGE COLLEGE

University Administration Division

We operate the Tokyo campus of Beijing Language and Culture University, a national university of China. We offer advanced Chinese language and cultural education to nurture Chinese language specialists. In addition to language proficiency, we aim to cultivate global talent with the skills needed to thrive across Asia.

Study Abroad Division

In partnership with educational institutions around the world, personalized study abroad support is provided to meet each student's individual goals and aspirations. From designing the ideal study abroad plan to supporting every step of the journey, students are guided with care so they can broaden their global perspectives and take the first step toward their dreams with confidence.

ISI International Study Institute

Recruitment Division

We expanded the field of recruitment services globally to assist in the placement of international human resources within Japanese society. We have a unique system that sources industry-ready talent worldwide, ranging from highly-skilled personnel (Engineer/Specialist in Humanities/International Services) to specified skilled workers and part-time employees. Recruitment services are tailored to align with each client's workforce planning needs.

GLOBAL REACH

ISI Japanese Language School is a vibrant, international learning environment, welcoming more than 10,000* students annually from over 100 countries and regions.

Six Distinctive Features

- ISI's unique educational system for improving Japanese language skills.
- A variety of extracurricular activities to comprehensively practice Japanese language skills acquired in the classroom.
- Full support from pre-entry to graduation.
- A solid reputation among external organizations and a proven track record of success.
- State-of-the-art facilities and equipment to enhance learning effectiveness.
- A diverse and global learning environment.

ISI Japanese Language School

Since the establishment of the first Japanese language school in 1992, its management has been the primary business of the WEWORLD Group, producing numerous global talent. Today, the school boasts the largest number of students in Japan and provides high-quality Japanese language and cultural education, along with higher education and career counseling services tailored to diverse student needs.

■Higher Education Expo

ISI organizes unique events for students aspiring to higher education. These include sessions featuring popular universities and vocational schools, where participants can directly learn about institutional characteristics and entrance requirements. These events are held multiple times annually.

■CAREER EXPO

For ISI students aiming to enter the workforce, the Group organizes exclusive information sessions with representatives from a wide range of industries. These events give students direct insight into different career paths and even the chance to take part in interviews, without needing to submit documents in advance.

■Self-Study System

To support independent learning, we've developed a proprietary Learning Management System (LMS). This tool enables students to adopt a personalized learning style tailored to their individual goals.

Beijing Language and Culture University, Tokyo College

Capacity 450

In 2015, the Beijing Language and Culture University, Tokyo College—the first branch of a Chinese national university in Japan—opened as a Japanese school accredited by the Minister of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology. The school follows a curriculum based on Beijing School's direct teaching method, utilizing small-group, participatory classes that have been developed and refined over 60 years. This approach aims to nurture individuals who can act as bridges of friendship between Japan and China. Through this curriculum, students not only gain advanced Chinese language proficiency but also acquire professional knowledge and skills, preparing them to succeed in a global environment.

■ Mobile Campus – All eligible students who wish to study abroad have the opportunity to attend the main campus in Beijing.

The Mobile Campus system allows second and third-year students at Tokyo College to study at the Beijing campus for one or two years, where they can gain practical language skills and deepen their cultural understanding. Since the study period in Beijing counts as part of their enrollment, and the credits earned are recognized, students can still graduate in four years, including their time spent in Beijing.

■ Conveniently located in Ikebukuro, Tokyo

This urban campus is ideally situated just a four-minute walk from the east exit of Ikebukuro Station. It is well-equipped, featuring a library where students can access a rich collection of Chinese language and culture books, along with Japanese resources.

■ Beijing Language and Culture University

Founded in 1962, Beijing Language and Culture University is an international university with its primary mission being to teach Chinese language and culture to foreign students. Its accumulated research on teaching the Chinese language and culture to international learners is unrivaled, and its expertise has been used all over the world. Since the school atmosphere is based on the mixture of various languages and values, it is often called a 'mini United Nations'.

Study Abroad Division

Under the motto "Connecting the World Through Dreams and People," the school's innovative programs and advanced services are designed to meet the evolving needs of study abroad students.

ISI's Approach to Global Talent Development

- We provide online seminars on study abroad and overseas travel, as well as the latest information on international matters.
- We foster engagement within our study abroad alumni community.

ISI Kokusai Gakuin

We collaborate with overseas educational institutions to create personalized study abroad plans tailored to each student's goals. Through this global network, we support a diverse range of individuals in turning their dreams into reality.

■ Peking University Health Science Center Medical Educational Program

This program offers students the opportunity to graduate from Peking University, one of China's top medical schools, and pursue a career as an international doctor. Graduates have passed Japan's National Examination for Medical Practitioners and are now working in leading university hospitals and medical institutions across the country. The language proficiency, communication and life skills developed while studying abroad are highly valued in Japan's medical field. Multilingual global doctors are playing active roles not only in Japan but around the world.

*This program is operated by Beijing Language and Culture University, Tokyo College.

■ Language Study Abroad

Our study abroad programs at language schools and educational institutions worldwide go far beyond standard English training. To meet the increasingly diverse needs of today's students, we offer a rich variety of dynamic programs tailored to every goal.

Addressing challenges in the acquisition of human resources

- Issue 1: Competition for skilled international professionals in Japan's job market is intensifying, making it more difficult to secure top talent.
- Issue 2: Recruiting professionals from overseas and retaining their expertise remains a major challenge for companies.
- Issue 3: Candidates hired through registration-based recruitment services often back out after tentative agreements, causing uncertainty in hiring.

The comprehensive resources and expertise of the WEWORLD Group can help solve these issues.

■ Four Services

1	Outsourcing of recruitment Proposals for recruitment and training plans tailored to companies' workforce needs, leveraging overseas networks and branches
2	Recruitment services — including recruitment for Specified Skilled Workers and Engineers / Specialists in Humanities /International Services Recruitment facilitated through part-time employment and on-campus information sessions, in addition to career fairs
3	Temporary staffing service Provides temporary part-time and full-time staffing solutions for sectors such as retail, service, food and beverage manufacturing, and janitorial services
4	Employee retention service Includes in-house Japanese language teacher training programs, global mindset training programs, and consulting services

Promoting sustainability management

The WEWORLD Group is committed to balancing the economy, society, and the environment, aiming to contribute to a sustainable future through our business.

We work towards achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) for people and the planet, encouraging peace and prosperity through all of our partnerships.

Diversity management

We continually promote diversity in recruitment and career development, ensuring all individuals' rights are respected and that they can showcase their abilities in a safe, equitable, and respectful environment.

With the goal of enabling everyone to fully utilize their unique potential, regardless of gender or nationality, we aim for at least 50% of managerial positions to be held by women and 20% of employees to be foreign nationals. We are thoroughly committed to maintaining a workplace where diverse individuals can thrive.

■ WEWORLD Group staff data (as of March 2026)

Gender Distribution / Percentage of Female Managers

Society in harmony with the environment

To conserve resources and protect the environment, we are actively reducing paper and electricity consumption while volunteering to clean up trash in our community.

■ Paperless, electricity conservation, and energy conservation challenges

For fiscal year 2026, we aim to reduce paper consumption per employee by 5% while maintaining current electricity consumption levels. To achieve this, we are reducing paper use by promoting digital education through AI-powered learning applications and digital teaching materials, as well as introducing electronic whiteboards and outsourcing high-volume printing. Efforts to reduce electricity consumption include upgrading to LED lighting, minimizing overtime, and enforcing lights-out policies.

Contribution to peace

With the ultimate goal of building a peaceful society that accepts everyone, we provide education as a means to assist refugees. Additionally, we organize international exchange events to promote cross-cultural understanding and harmony.

UNHCR
The UN Refugee Agency

■ Our refugee relief activities have supported 90 people (2022–April 2026)

The WEWORLD Group provides free Japanese language education to people who have been forced to flee their home countries. This assistance is intended to help refugees integrate into Japanese society and build hope for the future. Recognized as a joint project with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR), these efforts are conducted in collaboration with the following organizations:

- Support21 Social Welfare Foundation
- Certified NPO Living in Peace (LIP)
- Refugee Empowerment Network (REN)
- Foundation for the Welfare and Education of the Asian People

Affluent life

We are promoting the education of working adults for reskilling, training foreign nationals with advanced skills, and introducing international human resources in order to make the world prosperous and safe to live in.

■ Curriculum to deepen understanding of the SDGs and encourage action

The Group offers education designed to help students deepen their understanding of the SDGs and take initiative. At the Tokyo Business and Language College, students explore all 17 SDGs and practical measures in a course called "Agenda of the Earth." As part of this immersive program, they gain valuable insights into SDG implementation through field trips, visits to resource recycling facilities, and guided tours of regenerated satoyama forests, learning directly from experts.
